October 2026

Hello everyone,

It was lovely to see you all again after the summer break, to have a catch up with each other and to sew together. Many thanks if you have been able to compete a Christmas hoop. Please bring them to this meeting; even if you have not managed to put the hoops together, as Paul will assemble them.

We have two Christmas Craft Fairs in November, one on 7th at London Road Methodist Church from 10 am to 3 pm (setting up at 9 am) and it would be helpful to have a couple of volunteers. There is generally not much room behind the table so we could do timed slots.

The other fair is on 21st November at Partridge Green Methodist Church. That is a morning event only; as I can help with the setting up but need to be in Bracknell by 12 noon so Michelle has kindly offered to man our stand. I am sure she will let us know if she needs any help.

I have attached with this email two posters for the events; if you could distribute them to groups you belong to, on Facebook etc the organisers would appreciate it.

Now for this month: Paul Henry is going to present a talk ‘From Fleece to Pleats’ and I think you will find him very entertaining. He is happy to start his talk at 2.30 pm. However we also need to confirm who is taking part in the Round Robin challenge so please let me know before you leave. I am hoping to put my box together so that you can see an example for the Challenge. I hope the email I recently sent round explained this idea more fully and confirmed that this is a voluntary challenge. Our group is primarily for those who enjoy stitching and embroidery, also for those who want to share their knowledge and experience and for those who want to broaden their techniques.

As you know, after countless years Jessica has decided to step down from running the Sales Table and I am delighted to tell you that Susan Bohan has offered to take this on. I am not sure when it will be up and running so watch this space!

Looking forward to seeing you all on Thursday,

Janet
